FREEDOM OF SPEECH

JUST WATCH WHAT YOU SAY

Thanks go to my folks (although they never understand this kind of shit), Paul Jacksties, Sean Ganaan, the Future Bakery (for letting me work there), the Edgewater Hotel (for letting me work there too), William New, my siblings, CiUT 89.5 fm, Digiboy Multimedia, my roommates in the Dirty-bird House, Mike, Jaxon,

Emily Perogie, the cities of Vancouver, Yellowknife, N.W.T., Kitchener, N-O-T-L,

Montreal, Saskatoon, Edmonton and Toronto, Barb E., Billy, and everybody who's helping me on my quest for glory. But most of all thanks to Sharon MacDonald, whose zine made me jealous enough to do my own.

BEYOND OUR CONTROL
TONIGHT'S BINGO GAME HAS BEEN CANCELLED.

I wrote this almost five months ago (March 1993) and nothings changed.....

I first saw someone shoot up junk when I lived in Kitchener in 1987. The next time was in a squat in Vancouver in the summer of 1988. After that I noticed that heroin is indeed all-pervasive (I worked in Yellowknife, N.W.T. last winter and you can find it there). I myself have virgin veins, and I always will.

Two weeks ago i called my friend Pam in Vancouver and a guy that I know had OD'd at her place the week before. They resuscitated him, but he OD'd again five days later at someone else's place and died. A friend of mine who had moved out to Vancouver, Chris Davies, died last year of a heroin overdose. I was the promoter at a small venue in Van called the Arts Club. The night of one of my shows I heard that my friend Andy had died earlier that night of a you guessed it, heroin OD. I was invited to a party that night in Andy's honour and wouldn't you know it, there were all of his junkie friends, shooting up 'in his honour'. When I began to freak out on his supposed 'friends', they basically said "Uuuh, yo man, this is what Andy would have wanted." I DON'T FUCKING THINK SO PAL, I THINK ANDY WOULD RATHER BE HERE ALIVE THAN FUCKING DEAD. I understand the reasons for doing junk. I have had my junkie friends, while high, tell me why they're doing it. I have also seen them steal my stereo and TV, rob stores, and end up in prison. In the last nine months of 1992, 32 people died of heroin overdoses in Toronto. The purity level was estimated at being between 80-90%, when it is usually cut with milk sugar down to 20%. WHAT DOES IT TAKE TO SHOW PEOPLE ??? I'm sick of all of this apathy, which is what junk is, apathy in powder form.

Drink beer, smoke pot, be constructive (not destructive), and RISE ABOVE !!!

SCREECHING WEASEL SIVER SHACK

MARCH (I THINK)

I dont give a shit about tomorrow, cuz I saw Screeching Weasel today. These four lads ventured into the deepest bowels of Toronto (into Kensington Market, be exact) from the windy city of Chicago to play one-half hour of blissful, mindless, good ole punk rock. Yahoo !!

To be honest, I had never heard of Screeching Weasel before but from what I gathered before the show a) they're from Chicago, which is where two of my favorite bands (Pegboy and Naked Raygun) are from; b) Ben Weasel (from MRR) fronts the band. I dont know if that second point means that they'll be any better (or worse) but at least I knew who the dude was...

So anyway, after a little trouble with the monitors, the show began. Now, I dont care about you (fuck you!), but this is the kind of shit I like. Fast, melodic, great backup vocals (by Dan, the bass player) and more hooks than you could shake a stick at. Again and again I was reminded of one of the best 'small' shows that I ever saw (the Mr. T. Experience at the Arts Club in Vancouver)--both bands have the same manic intensity (like drinking the Future Bakery's new coffee Jet Fuel) and they're obviously having alot of fun (except for Ben--buy MRR #122 for more details on their tour!). They played about ten songs--these included 'Mary was an anarchist', which is a song dealing with certain segments buying into what they perceive to be the latest fad, without having any real clue as to what they're actually doing; another song I think was entitled 'I dont give a shit about tomorrow' with its ringing chorus of 'i hate suburbia !!'; they then went on to three encores. After the show I felt as giddy as a kid that just downed a whole bag of Oreos.

Some mewling fanboy thought that I was with the band and started to buy the bass player and I drinks. We played along and got sloshed--what a night !! Screeching Weasel can be reached at P.O. Box 62, Prospect Heights, Illinois

I gotta hand it to the Satanatras. They are pretty good. My friend Sean doesnt think so, though. He says that they are a joke that he just doesnt get. Screw him, Whatever. As-usual the band were,uuuh, you know, the Satanatras, man!

Dallas had his goofy costume change thing goin, they have a new bass player with some kind of fetish for lotsa bass gear and effects racks that he never used. Oh, well. They played short ten minute sets that were well recieved by the drunken louts they were playing to (myself included, of course). Dallas threatened to do a Sex Pistols cover but I left before they did so. Quel drag.

We all got really drunk cuz who knows when the Fun Squad will show up. Keep up the fight, we'll get the fuckers..... the Spaceman

Mother's head put on display

VIENNA, (Reuter). — A 26-year-old Viennese man stabbed his mother to death, cut off her head and put it in the window of her boutique.

Police said they were informed of the murder after a neighbor met the man, carrying the head of his 58-year-old mother in a plastic bag.

The head still had a knife buried in the neck.

Police found her naked body in the woman's apartment. The man told police he had killed his mother after an argument.

Devoured:

Devoured/Dave Howard. Yes Dave Howard is in this band as the name might suggest..

Anyone who might be looking for Dave

Howard in the line up ~~will probably find~~ ^{won't} ~~will not~~ have trouble finding him. ~~him too.~~ Dave Howard is the Guy who sings, alot. You can't miss him. the band is a drummer, a bassplayer and Dave Howard.

The fact is, Dave, Howards alter ego plays a vintage Ace tone Organ. He plays this fine set of keys through every conceivable analog manipulation (Wah^uwah, Tape eco, distortion, etc,) ^{and} with ~~enough~~ ^{finesse} finesse enough to put any stack of techno-trash to sad shame. The Moment the Acetone kicked in with the rythm section and the sound-plane was saturated by ~~the~~ ^{its} haunting effects, I thought I caught a glimpse of Toronto's dance future. It didn't last long however, ~~Dave/Ho~~ With the ~~ex~~ception of one song, Dave Howard put his vocal stylings in the fore for the entire set while Richards loaded bass action merely backed him up., ~~I/ I think/I/I~~ I think I'll wait 'till Devoured gets laringitis before I check them

Well, I ran my first boozecan here in the big city of Toronto, and it was a ripper. With my main man Paul J. on hand to dispense the refreshments and two fine bands playin, I couldn't lose (Hah!). All in all though, uh, at least I didn't get busted (there was a RIDE program outside on the corner, too, so thanks to those that warned me). Bavarian Purity Law are an acoustically oriented Pogues style Irish folky kinda band (I hope the description is alright, BPL) and they got some feets a-stompin. Next up were the Polyester Explosion, and for a band that I had never heard before (I met their guitarist through a mutual friend and I dug him so he of course offered to have his band play)--Well folks, Polyester shred like no other band on earth (lotsa cute girls at their shows too). They fried whats left of my brain and served it back to me as a garnish for my Eggs Benedict---honest, they're that good!! They got the go-go girls shimmy-shimmyin and Steve Goof dancing in the aisles. Please go see these bands when they play, it'll do you good. Great show at the Edgewater on July 1 by Polyester, Chickenmilk and Adventure Playground too. I'm outta here...^{the} spaceman

WITH THIS INVITE

DUNDAS ST. E. REAR

This was a great boozecan. I miss it, and good luck to the dude that ran it. I think he's gone legit and its a recording studio now....

HOW IT STARTED ...

Not long ago, when the USSR was still an entity, their black market was a booming enterprise. Big bucks from the West helped the average low-paid worker get by also. In time, the "Empire" fell through when the political system collapsed. (Was it still called "Communism" at that point?)

Unemployed, I wake at 3 pm and rummage through my pantry for my stash of staple foodsinbottles. Even though I'm a pack rat survivor by nature, my rice is running low. No more elbow macaroni. The spirals are all eaten up. What to do?! Aha - the last $25 I was going to repair my boots with, but first I'm Jonesing for a smoke. Yes, I can do it! I buy a carton in Chinatown. Tonight I will make it ($$) back after hours!

It's been over 3 years now that I haven't paid the taxed-to-the-hilt 'regular' price for smokes, and no longer think of 'my brand'. Is it my fault that the government's fucked up and screws our bad habits to retrieve its losses? I am justified recalling that I had cried on the day that Mulroney was elected after all! (Can we still call the Mulroney-Bush conspiracy a 'Democracy'?)

HOW IT'S PROGRESSED

So, in order to eat, instead of begging or stealing, I offer a commodity to sell, something that others with my vice can appreciate, at comparably lower than legal market rates. This winter I became accustomed to the luxury of not having to roll ashtray butts. I thereby have at least this measure of dignity in my routine of selling at various after hours venues throughout Toronto.

HOW IT WILL CONTINUE

Of course it works in spurts. I can attribute this to sunspot activity, astrological shifts, CHEQUE DAY, or whatever excuse pleases me at the time, when after all, I don't have serious connections in the Chinese Mafia for my stock! It's simply my present form of surviving the times and preserving my semi-precarious sanity.

Blundermen--"Hummer" (cassette only)

Great name for the cassette, cuz thats what the tape is--I love humming the chorus on '309 and Beyond' ("Why should I believe in the police..") as I'm walking by 'The Man'. I guess the tape has been around for about a year, but I only just heard it recently; having discussed this with my roommates we decided that its time THAT YOU PUT OUT A NEW GODDAMN TAPE RIGHT NOW!! WE WANT MORE!!! ok? ---the Spaceman

Hevs Duties--demo, self-titled

This is a four song demo that I've already had requests for on my radio show. No wonder, cuz its rad. Alot of my B.C. friends would dig this --the first track is about smokin cheeba, called "Savour the Flavour" only the guys in the band must have been blowin doobs while they were recording too cuz "Savour the Flavour" comes out as "Savuuh the Flavuuuh"--AWESOME, dude. I also saw them at the Edgewater Hotel about a month ago and they got alot of attitude (at least on stage), which I like. This isn't a playpen, its fuggin' rocknroll, kiddies!

Hockey Teeth--cassette only--"Two Minutes For Roughing"

Awesome. Everybody should have Hockey Teeth. Its been one of my houses favourite tapes--goofy lyrics, a Bad Religion cover and a Minor Threat cover, a rousing singalong chorus at the end for "You Truly Suck" and the whole damn tape clocks in at about 15 minutes. These guys (and a girl-sorry Krystyn) rip. Good live show too. Get it you fuck !! the Spaceman

They call the song "Julie A on Acid" and its got to be heard to be believed. Call John at (416) 257-1582 for a copy--Editor

I saw these guys play at the Edgewater (Where else? Thank God I work there, or I'd never see anybody) --they play very energetic although almost a little too positive, even for me. While little boys are brought up with a lifetimes worth of Ammo Imagery, little girls are brought up with an equal amount of suppressing "little lady" imagery. Is there one popular toy geared towards females that hints that the world is a nasty place? (the Date Rape board game?) what about Barbie dolls have got to do is take all those attitudes and accoutrements of suppression and throw them like lipstick grenades in society's facell!

P.S. With the popularity of those self-appointed cops (with their faux francats sa vous flair) the Guardian Angels, Im surprised that theres no accompanying doll. Mattel? Kenner? Anybody listening? A breakfast cereal perhaps?

GIMME LIFE OR GIMME SKATEBOARD

Skateboards fun? Oh yeah, Loads of fun. Coasting down an inner city street, graceful and looking good, sure, man. Roll. Not only are skateboards fun, they also help express a fashionable attitude. Let us be hip. Let us be cool. YEAH, for sure. Skateboards are a gas and a half and a blast. Just watch out for that incredibly tiny stone on the road or WHAM! You go down like a ton of bricks. Yup, that's right. It's all fun and games until someone BREAKS A RIB OR SMASHES THEIR BLOODY SKULL WIDE OPEN! So be careful.
